

Serial No. 09/827,226
67108-043; Wong 1

In the Hwang 92 reference at page 424, it is clear that "the center generates a random number, SK, which serves as the session key." There is nothing in the Hwang 92 reference that in any way indicates that the random number SK is a function of any session key. Therefore, the random number SK is not a function of any session key. Instead, it is random.

Neither of the Hwang references disclose or in any way suggest Applicant's claimed invention. This case is in condition for allowance.

Respectfully submitted,

CARLSON, GASKEY & OLDS, P.C.
